The Celebrated Indian Doctor,

JOS. SAUKABASIN,

HAS now availed himself of the medical knowledge of the tribe who composed the original inhabitants of this country and having for upwards of twenty years experience gained a knowledge of the most perfect combination of the vegetable substances which are the growth and natural remedy for the diseases of the climate, offers his services to all disorders. He has in his possession a great number of certificates, testifying to the powerfully beneficial and often sudden effects, of his medicines. From a very large number of certificates he selects the following

Bangor, July 8, 1848.

To whom it may concern:—This will certify that I had a very severe attack of the Rheumatism in my hip. I tried various means to cure it, but it grew worse and worse for about three months, when I applied to Dr. JOSEPH SAUKABASIN, one of the Penobscot tribe of Indians, who cured me entirely and in a very short time, and I have never been troubled with it since. And I feel it due to him and to the community to recommend him as a safe and skilful physician. BENJAMIN SNOW.

...ow will certify that I was afflicted for over thirty years with a Scrofula humor in my leg, and I applied to four ...five physicians, and got no relief until I fell in with JOSEPH SAUKABASIN, and he gave me one bottle of ...edicine, and cured me so it has troubled me none since, and is healed perfectly sound. My daughter Hannah was afflicted with a Cough, and Spitting of Blood, and by taking his medicine was cured. SYLVANUS COOMBS.

Camden, August 15, 1849.

HOLDEN, Dec. 3, 1852.

Dr. Joe Saukabasin—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to give you my best thanks for curing my wife of a disease of long standing—a spiritual complaint—which I believe if it had not been for your medicine she now would have been in her grave. ANDREW L. PINKHAM.

DEXTER, Dec. 7th, 1852.—I feel perfectly satisfied that Dr. Joseph Saucabasin has cured my boy of a fever sore, when all other doctors gave him up. NATHAN DYER.

He has located himself in Brewer, above the Toll Bridge where he may be consulted by mail or otherwise, and will be frequently in Bangor.

THE best Cook Stove ever introduced to this or any other people.

Having secured the sole agency of this very desirable Stove, I take great pleasure in offering it to my customers and the public. BOSTON, January 7, 1835.

Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia, have suffered much from the want of a skilful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases, I have taken pains to inform myself of the competency of Mr J F Foster, to supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr. Heath. After some months of observation of his work, I am well satisfied that Mr. Foster is well conducted with the manufacture of these instruments, and ingenious in accommodating them to the variety of cases which occur. I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren, and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to these important articles.

JOHN C WARREN, M D, Boston

CERTIFICATE. The following certificate is from Professor Stuart, of Andover Theological Seminary.

Mr F ...ster's success in the main acquire and adapting them to the body, giving ease and comfort to the wearer, surpasses far as our experience goes, any other manufacturer of the article.

It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, so long under the latherly care of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer) "The Green Hand," "Katie Stewart," and other serials of which numerous republications are issued by the leading publishers in this country have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

Our Lives.

BY S. HERBERT LANCEY.

Oh! some are gay and fleeting, and some are filled with sorrow—We laugh in happiness to-day, and weep in grief to-morrow; And such is Life, with its changes, and such will it ever be While we live, and toil, and wander about, amid earth's misery.

We shall have our share of sorrow and our portion, too, of joy, But think not either of these will come to us without alloy:
Then let us jog along through life unheeding its joy or sorrow, And trusting that if it storms to-day, it will be fair to-morrow.

The loved who gather around our hearth may one by one depart, And break the tender chords of love they have twined around our heart, By the overwhelming grief that comes as we gaze on their cold face, And feel that 'twill smile on us no more from its accustomed place.

And the hope of wealth or fame may lure some fond heart far away That wept with us when sad;—that laughed with us when gay;— That may never come to greet us more with a well remembered tone, That will never die upon our ear though long he may be gone.

Misfortune's clouds may hover round and dim prosperity's sun,
And, disheartened, we may think his course is then forever run, Scarce dreaming that the gale that blows these clouds upon our path, Will sweep them far away again in its impetuous wrath.

Though pain and sorrow may be the lot of many here on earth, There are others, too, whose lives are filled with jollity and mirth;
Who drown dull care and sorrow in the wine cup's sparkling foam,
And are hurried by pleasures, manifold, down to the Demon's home.

But those who bear the ills of life, as Heaven designed they should,
At last are gathered to their rest among the blest and good Who fill the mansions of the Lord far up in yonder sky, Where heavenly peace and joy abide, and never, never, die.

Then let us strive to bear life's ills—to gain at last a home, Where not an evil or a pain of our earthly life will come, But where, at the foot of Him who died for sinners such as we,
Receive a blessed crown of light, to wear thro' all eternity.

Shade Trees.

But few farmers are inclined to beautify the vicinity of their residences with a sufficient number of shade trees, and those who are seeking localities, willingly pay advanced prices to such as supply building lots well protected by shade trees. Our ancestors, in some cases, have placed us under a debt of gratitude for their foresight, and each farmer should contribute to its liquidation. To see a square—under foot hard as it can be of a noon's heat, filled by, and in, the rays of the sun, and not a shade tree, or a vine to afford protection for flowers, &c., for both health and comfort are advanced by such practice. It is useless to argue at this date that mere matters of ornament are useless to the farmer. It is true that Queen Elizabeth breakfasted on beef steaks and ale, without the appendage of a knife and fork; but because her majesty so breakfasted, it is no argument why any farmer's daughter at this time should partake of a similar meal. Because our fathers left our houses bare in shade we should not follow on but since it rolled over on its face, has been snuffed at by the dogs, and had a dozen blades of grass or more sticking its nose all through that interesting period. Its partiality is still manifested on this march, boots and shoes. Peggy, in a brown study, lays it over her right shoulder, (if there have been ever the left) quite unconscious that the sun is scorching its eyes out.

When it returns home, and visions of a "shad overflowing with milk' begin to float through e cream, and mama is in the parlor with comany in full dress, and can't think of being isturbed to nurse, and Peggy, still thanks of John, ving heedless as well as her betters, slily ministers a dose of paregoric—but resigns itelf to its fate without any signs of discontent whatever.

It is also enough of a Spartan to make no obection to being made a living pincushion, and ven thanks of remonstrating, though the pin as been working its way into its shoulder, ever since it was dressed in the morning, remains undisturbed until it comes off with the dress at night.

Finally—its crowning excellence is that it never wakes when papa comes toiled, stays in the crib until morning

FRIDAY, JAN 21, 1853.

Governor's Address.

We have probably read the Address of Governor Crosby, delivered to the Legislature on Wednesday and which has appeared in our columns in a well written document, although not as full as under the circumstances it could have been executed, to deal specifically and definitely with the affairs of the State. The Message disappoints those who received their first impressions from a telegraphic report of his contents.

The Address was delivered in person and in the style of graceful and happy oratory, for which Governor Crosby is eminently distinguished. There are significant passages in the address which could only be made highly effective before a legislative assembly by a warm and appreciative audience.

The address is certainly right in the declaration that the people of the State demand a law sufficiently stringent to close effectually every source of intemperance within its borders The people will not be likely to demand anything short of the means of accomplishing this result, in their power To this many of them have, and more will, dedicate their political influence.

The address is ingenious and clever for finding much solace and comfort in the recent election of President that he is a New Englander.
As a matter of that kind we know no North, no South, no East, and no West. We think that the election of Gen Pierce over Gen Scott was a calamity, which is only slightly mitigated, and that in an uncertain degree, by the election of a New England man.

There is force and power in the remarks upon the development of the resources of Maine, and the duty of encouraging herself to the most liberal encouragement to her citizens in all branches of productive business. The agricultural capacities of the State are poorly appreciated, and the attention calling special attention to this matter and suggesting a continuance of the Geological survey in order to give all sections of the State the benefit of an analysis of soils, has considerable argument in favor which cannot fail to be appreciated and applauded by those interested, and we know working its way into public favor.

We know the necessity which the present state of affairs imposes upon farmers who would be successful in adapting their business to the times, and the dressing of land to its wants—but we have only space to day to glance at the address, and in so doing would commend to our readers a careful reading of the document itself.

The Prospects.

The prospect now seems to be that the spring will open quite lively in the way of business for all classes in the community Accounts from the lumber teams represent that they are doing a very good business after the difficulties they experienced in commencing operations a work The snow in the woods is about two feet deep, and there has not been for three weeks, a very remarkable circumstance considering the time of the year and the storms which have raged West and South

The general prosperity of the country, the demand for ships, and the increase of ship building, the growth of towns and the increased activity in manufacturing, will be likely to equal the demand for all the lumber which our mills can furnish, and at rates which will remunerate the operators

The work of constructing the Bangor and Piscataquis railroad will be carried forward very actively in the spring, as will also the extension operations of the Gas Company.

There more than the usual preparations are made at this season of the year for the erection of buildings the next season. A beautiful brick block stores is to be erected by Messrs.
Nathan Johnson and William Arnold on the corner above the Hatch House, and on the east square by Mr William Lewis The property of the lot on the corner of Exchange street and Kenduskeag Bridge are to erect a block of handsome stores on the vacant lot on the corner and running on the bridge as far as the wooden stores now extend, removing the same.

Work is taken up for the erection of a new House between Smith's Bridge and Union Bridge in the center of the stream, with entrance from each bridge, the lower to have a basement, above which it is to be three stories, the upper one for a large and commodious Hall. This will be a great improvement and a convenience to the city. The second Baptist Society are to erect a new church. Gen Joseph Stevens is to erect a large and handsome house on the commanding eminence in the situation of his fruit garden on Union street opposite the Theological Seminary.— There are preparations making for the erection of quite a number of private dwellings, and there is an active demand for commanding lots for building purposes, and soon the second grade of houses must give way to those of better quality, the increased value of the land causing their removal, particularly as buildings are now moved with so great facility, and so cheaply, by the Messrs. E. & S. S. Low whose skill and arrangements are adapted to any emergency of this kind.

We should mention also, while upon this subject, that the Messrs. Cooper of this city have erected a large two-storied work shop in the new ship yard they have established on the opposite side of the river, and where they propose to carry on extensively the business of ship building. Mr. Timothy Crosby will build at his yard a large ship this season, and at the other yards there are the indications of increased business.

These matters are mentioned for the purpose of posting up our readers in business movements, and to show that there is no need of people going to California or elsewhere in order to get employment, or find business, but that in the State of Maine, and the city of Bangor, those who are industrious, skillful and economical, can find ample opportunities for the exercise of their powers, and can maintain their families, and make handsome accumulations.

A Letter from the Pope to a King.

Pope Pius IX, has written a letter to the King of Sardinia, in strong opposition to a Bill recently under discussion in his Parliament, proposing that parties who choose may, under certain circumstances, contract matrimony with the sanction of the magistracy, as in France and some other Catholic countries. In conclusion, His Holiness says

"We have written to your majesty that the law is not catholic, and if the law is not catholic, it is obligatory on the clergy to warn the faithful even in front of the danger which they incur. Majesty, we speak to you also in the name of Jesus Christ, of whom we are vicar, though unworthy, and in his holy name. We tell you not to sanction this law which is fertile of a thousand disorders

We pray you again to order that a restraint be put upon the press which overflows continually with blasphemies and immorality Oh! let not these sins redound on him who having the power, should not prevent the cause!

Your Majesty complains of the clergy, but this clergy have of late years been reviled, cal-lumniated, derided, by almost all the sheets which are printed in Piedmont, and all the villainies and mad invectives which have been and are hurled against this clergy it would be impossible to repeat.

And now, because they defend the purity of the faith and the principles of truth, must that clergy encounter the disfavor of your Majesty?

We cannot persuade ourselves of it, and we willingly abandon ourselves to the hope of seeing the rights of the church sustained by you, its ministers protected, and your people freed from the duty of subjection to certain laws which bear with them the impress of the decadence of religion and of morality in your states

Full of this confidence, we raise our hands to heaven praying the Most Holy Trinity to cause to descend the apostolic benediction upon your august person and the royal family

Signed PIUS P P IX.

In the 17th year of our Pontificate.

This letter bears date, Sept 19th, 1852, and appears for the first time in the Turin Journal, of Dec. 18th, from which it has been translated for the Newark, (N J.,) Daily Advertiser

The Pope's letter appears to be in answer to one from the King, which is not published, concerning the inexorable opposition of the Holy See at Rome, and its priesthood in the Kingdom itself, to the considerate measures of His Majesty a government, to establish civil and religious liberty in that Catholic country

Ceremonies on the Presentation of a Gold Watch to the Foreman of the Tiger Engine Company No. 6.

On Wednesday evening 19th inst. a special meeting of Tiger Engine Company No 6, was held at their Hall.

After the transaction of the regular business, Mr Daniel M. Hunt tendered his resignation as Foreman of the Company, on account of his anticipated departure for Australia.

Mr N S. Harlow, in behalf of the company, then presented to Mr. Hunt, a Gold Watch and chain, and submitted the following address

Mr. Hunt—

In compliance with the desire of the members of this Company, I rise to fulfill a duty, pleasant indeed, but one for whose proper discharge I feel myself to be very imperfectly fitted The pleasure of assisting in a labor of love, must be my apology for accepting such a post.

It has become customary for Companies and Associations of men, to mark (either by some public ceremony or by appropriate gifts,) the departure from among them, of those distinguished by office or by long and faithful service.
But it is less for the sake of complying with the requirements of fashion, than from a desire to reward, however inadequately, the tried companion of their labors, who, whatever the position occupied by him, has always exerted himself, with no large a measure of success, to further their best interests, the Tigers request your acceptance of this Watch and Chain. They are of slight value in comparison with your services, but they may serve as a testimony of our good wishes toward you And let me assure you, sir, that these wishes will bear you company, wherever the pursuit of business or pleasure may carry you, and should you ever return to this scene of your early labors, we shall be happy to welcome the brave and vigilant Fireman, the true-hearted Tiger.

In conclusion, allow me, for myself, and for the other members of this Company, to wish to yourself and companions, a happy and successful voyage; may bountiful Fortune shower her gifts plentifully upon you, and may your speedy return gladden the hearts of your numerous friends.

To this address, Mr. Hunt replied as follows:—

Permit me, my dear sir, in accepting this present, to say, that I thank you personally, for the friendly expression with which you have been pleased to accompany it. I accept it as the valued token of the respect and friendship of the donors, all of whom, with yourself, I have the happiness to number among my friends.
It is gratifying evidence to me in this moment, I have no language with which I could adequately express my heartfelt thanks and gratitude for it. You have alluded to my services in the Tiger Engine Company No. 6, and you have given me too much credit for them. I have served long with you all, and you have promoted me above my deserts, and, if I have been enabled to do my duty, it is because I have always had the ready and cheerful aid, and support of its members, for, their untiring energy, faithfulness, and devotion to duty, have made it very easy for me to do my duty. You have said that this gift, is not in obedience to the custom that prevails when an officer or member, of long tried service, is about to retire to take up his connexions with the Company, but as the testimonial of your respect for myself, and to add your wishes for my prosperity, while absent in a far distant land, and my return, again, to the bosom of family and friends.
I shall carry it with me. I shall often look upon it, and shall see reflected from its face the faces and forms of those who gave it to me; and as the hours shall pass away, I shall constantly hope that they will bear to you, one and all, peace, health and happiness. It is proper for me to add, that I am not doomed to go on my way to the land of Gold, alone. Dear friends, your friends and my friends, our companions in many a hard struggle with the fiery element, will go with me, and mitigate the sorrows of absence and the hardships of the enterprise—I know they share with me largely in your affectionate regard. They deserve it, and I hope, that laden with golden treasure, they will return to win golden opinions from all men, and that thus, I wish they may be restored to your society again. I bid you all farewell

The following song, written for the occasion by S. Herbert Lancey, was then sung by the Tiger Glee Club

The Tigers' Parting Song.

Once again, once again,
We'll join our voices here,
And though we ne'er may meet again,
We'll cheer the starting tear We're met to-night to bid adieu, To you, to you, long have loved — Whose generous hearts and ready hands We have so often proved Once again, once again,
We'll join our voices here,
And though we ne'er may meet again,
We'll cheer the starting tear

Sadness deep, sadness dark
Falls on every heart,
For, oh, we feel 'tis hard for us
To have our friends depart.
Here we've met and here we part With you we dearly love And now, we wish you joy and peace Wherever you may roam
Sadness deep sadness dark,
Falls on every heart,—
For oh we feel 'tis hard for us
To have our friends depart.

Friendship sweet, friendship dear
Will ne'er desert the true
And when, in golden lands you stray,
'Twill sweetly comfort you.
May gentle gales speed swiftly on Your bark o'er ocean's foam, And speed you safely back to us—To the your native home

Friendship sweet, friendship dear,
Will ne'er desert the true,
And when in golden lands you stray,
'Twill sweetly comfort you

Now we part, now we part,
To meet perchance no more,
But on our thoughts shall turn to you,
On that far distant shore Though you meet with kindler friends, Whose hearts to you endear, Remember those dear friends at home,
Who drop the parting tear,
Now we part, now we part,
To meet perchance no more!
But oft our thoughts shall turn to you
On that far distant shore intercourse

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 18, 1853.

IN THE SENATE.

A bill was introduced, by Mr Badger abolishing the right to demand a bill in civil cases in the district.

Mr Shields reported back the House bill appropriating $50,000 for an equestrian statue of Washington passed unanimously

Mr Soule called for information relative to the claims of American citizens against Hayti.
Adopted.

The resolution of Mr Brooke, calling for the reasons why official relations with Mr Marcoleta, the Nicaragua Minister, were suspended, was by consent with a view to be offered in session. Laid over.

Mr Rusk moved and the Chair was authorised to fill the vacancy in the committee of Post Office and Post Roads in the place of Mr Upham.

Mr Badger introduced a bill changing the law relative to bail in civil cases in the District of Columbia. It abolishes all right to demand bail in any civil case.

The Pacific Railroad Bill was postponed.

The resolution of Mr Clay reaffirming the Monroe doctrine and applying it to Cuba, was taken up, when

Mr. Clay addressed the Senate. He commenced a review of the circumstances that took place that led to the Monroe doctrine, and made it the settled policy as announced to be, of our Presidents, Monroe and Polk, and then asks why it has become necessary for Congress to interpose and a legislative declaration re-affirming it The nature of our government, he says, furnishes a satisfactory answer to this question, though there is no doubt but these executive declarations were beneficial in their operations, and aided in checking schemes of aggrandizement, which, had they gone on, would have changed the political aspect of the countries south of us, and greatly to our injury Still they have not been wholly regarded as events upon the La Plata, and in other regions practically have demonstrated and occurrences now going on in Central America, and which from day to dry occupy the earnest attention of the Senate, showing the steps by which the merest shadow of possession becomes a claim, and a claim a rule, which rule carries with it dominion and sovereignty, treaty or no treaty.
These occurrences announce that our declared policy of exclusion will be still further disregarded unless or rather upon our apprehensions, and as it is arrested or submitted to it, will be abandoned or pushed to results which no nation now ventures openly to avow.

Mr Cass then proceeded to discuss the subject at great length His speech will fill 10 or 12 columns of the Washington papers

Mr Butler of South Carolina followed Mr Cass in explanation of the circumstances under which the Monroe doctrine was first promulgated, which he contended were peculiar The Monroe declaration, he said, as he understood it from Mr. Calhoun, who was a member of Monroe's cabinet, was intended to meet a prac tical issue then presented touching our institutions and rights It was meant to apply solely to the attempt then about to be made by the Holy Alliance to restore Spanish dominion over the Central American States. Mr Butler then read part of Mr Calhoun's speech in the Senate some years ago, on the subject, in which it was held that the Holy Alliance intended to restore the Spanish dominion over those States, and that this general declaration of Mr Monroe was intended to meet the specific case, that there it stopped, and that it extended no further Mr Monroe took the wise and practical course of meeting the issue then presented, and no other

The subject was further discussed by Mr Hale, who thought that if annexation was to go on we ought to turn our eyes to Canada The commerce of the lakes, he was told, was far greater than the whole foreign commerce of the United States, while Canada in a military point of view, was of greater importance than Cuba, as the whole internal commerce was within the reach of her shores

Mr Mason of Virginia, got the floor, when the Senate adjourned

IN THE HOUSE

The House resumed the consideration of a resolution reported from the Committee on Elections to pay John Taliaferros per diem and mileage for contesting a seat thirty or forty years ago

Mr Brooks, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill establishing a branch mint in New York

Mr Chandler objected to a second reading

A discussion ensued when the morning hour having expired, the subject was dropped

The bill to suppress the circulation of small notes in the district was taken up, and the question put on the first amendment makes the uttering of notes as currency in the District of Columbia, under denomination of $5, liable to indictment for misdemeanor, and punishable by imprisonment for a term of not less than ten days nor more than one year, and a fine of not less than $100, nor more than $500 Several other amendments were adopted making the bill more stringent than originally reported when the bill passed, yeas 81, nays 30

Without coming to any conclusion, the House adjourned.

A NOBLE ENTERPRISE.—We learn from a late number of the Brooklyn Morning Journal, that Dr H A Root, the celebrated blood and con sumption physician has purchased a site in New York, for the erection of a Pulmonic Hospital similar to the one established in London by Dr Ramadge The doctor has two purposes in view in the establishment of this institution, the first of which, is to provide a place of resort for those consumptives whose pecuniary means are limited, where they may be treated at a trifling expense, and the second, to afford a practical school where members of the medical profession may obtain a correct knowledge of the proper course to pursue in the treatment of pulmonary diseases This is a noble project Dr R is well qualified by nature and education to superintend the affairs of a hospital of this character. When completed, each physician who places himself under Dr. R s tuition will be instructed in the use of the barometer, and on receiving his diploma will be presented with one of these valuable instruments to assist in his practice.—Boston Herald

THE CUBAN DEBATE From advance sheets of the Democratic Review it appears that the next number of that work will take strong ground against the positions of Messrs Mason & Cass in the U S. Senate on the Cuban question The article in the forthcoming number of the Review will occupy twenty-four pages, taking the ground that the American people want Cuba and giving reasons why and for what purpose they want it, and urging the importance of our securing the Island at once. The article will arrest public attention.—Democrat

METEOR.—On Sunday morning, Jan 9, at about twenty minutes of 1 o'clock, the light of a meteor was seen by several persons in this vicinity, illuminating for nearly a minute, the whole heavens, and so brilliantly that many supposed some building had taken fire and suddenly burst into flames. A rumbling sound phenomenon has not been noticed by any of our exchanges.

The following schemes are in process of incubation at Washington —

1. An increase of the President's salary to $50 000
2. The construction of permanent residences for the vice President and heads of Department 3. An increase of the Secretaries' salaries.

"As a motive power for all legitimate purposes of com merce — domestic and international — it will strait way supersede steam Anything more experimentally suc cessful, more practically simple cannot be conceived" So says a New York paper concerning the Ericsson caloric ship

Grief never sleeps, it watches continually, like a jealous husband. All the world groans under its sway, and it fears that, by sleeping, its clutch will become loosened, and its prey then escape

A young dandy, about starting on a sea voyage, went to a store to purchase a life preserver "Oh, you will not want it," suggested the clerk, "bags of wind won't sink!"

Gas, made on the premises, is beginning to be used at San Francisco.

A man named Frost living in Cincinnati, weighs 391 pounds, avoirdupois. A pretty heavy Frost, that.

Why is the letter M like a squalling brat? Because it makes Ma Bad.

LOVETT'S WAHPENE

Will, without doubt, change GRAY HAIR to its original color, cure Baldness, remove all Scurf and Dandruff, and other diseases of the Hair and Scalp.

I caution the public against buying an article called "Improved Wahpene," for Lovett's. The said article has been getting, and the name "Improved," to deceive the public and injure the Proprietor of the true "Wahpene"), thinking to get off their Rubbish under the wide spread reputation of Lovett's. GEO. W. EMERSON, Druggist, No 4 Kenduskeag Block, is my only authorized agent in Bangor, of whom the genuine Wahpene may be obtained advertisements to the contrary notwithstanding. H. T. LOVETT, N. Y., Proprietor.

"DIGEST" Such is the true meaning of the word "PEPSIN" or of the two Greek words from which it is derived This is the significant and appropriate title of the TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, or ASTRIC JUICE prepared by Dr J S HOUGHTON, of Philadelphia, from the fourth Stomach of the Ox for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is Nature's own remedy for an unhealthy Stomach No art of man can equal its curative powers. It renders GOOD EATING perfectly consistent with HEALTH See the figure of the Ox, in another

BE NOT DECEIVED.

Unprincipled men and ignorant quacks have taken ad vantage of the great popularity and wonderful cures per formed by CURTIS & PERKINS' CRAMP AND PAIN KILLER, and are endeavoring to palm off base imitations and counterfeits of the article. REMEMBER the ONLY GEN-UINE Original Cramp and Pain Killer in the world is Curtis & Perkins. No one will fully appreciate their right secured for the United States and to no other person in the world is in possession of the secret of compounding the genuine article. Avoid all spurious and inferior imitations, or you may take poison instead of Pain Killer. Purchase of our authorized agents. Be sure you get the genuine Curtis & Perkins' Cramp and Pain Killer and you will be positively sure of relief from pain, and speedy cure.

CURTIS & PERKINS

Bangor Sept. 22, 1852 3mawd&w

IT IS AN ERRONEOUS IDEA that disease cannot be cured except by taking large quantities of medicine into the stomach in a great many cases of which much injury is done, although the disease is not actually cured The coats of the stomach by continued use of nauseating mixtures, frequently become so much disordered that the digesting function is seriously impaired—the result of which is dyspepsia, nervousness, chilics alternate chills and costiveness, flatulence, nightmare etc. etc. Would it not, therefore, be very desirable to possess a remedy, which be ing applied externally would excite the absorbents to increased action and thus carry off through this medium the deleterious principle which is the direct cause of the disease? Surely every thinking man will admit that this would not only be the most natural but by far the safest means to effect the desired end The ablest Sportsman cures performed by the Arabian Physicians in the days of old were mainly effected by this course of treatment and the ingredients of which H G FARRELL'S CELEBRA-TED ARABIAN LINIMENT is compounded are extracted from rare plants peculiar to Arabia This great Liniment (which is now to be had of most respectable druggists and merchants in every town in the United States in defy of fecting cures which are said beyond the power of medicine to control—consumption, in its first stages, nervous affections, indigestion, enlargement of the spleen, scirrhous tumors, goitre etc. etc., are frequently cured and always relieved by its use It is unsurpassed as an anodyne—relieving severe pains in a few min tes after its application—as the irritated nerves and parts receive that delightful tranquility so grateful to the pain tormented Sudden bruises wounds burns sore throat, chilblains, rheumatism, pain or ache, are speedily cured by it and generally after a few applications of cattle, requiring an external application it is an effectual remedy.

LOOK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITS

The public are cautioned against the counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance called W B Farrell's Arabian Liniment, the most dangerous of all the counterfeits, because his having the name of Farrell many will buy it in good faith without the knowledge that a counterfeit exists and they will perhaps only discover their error when the spurious mixture has wrought its evil effects.

The genuine article is manufactured only by H G Farrell, sole Inventor and Proprietor and wholesale druggist, No. 1st Main Street Peoria, Illinois to whom all applications for Agencies must be addressed Be sure you get it with the letters H G before Farrell's, thus—H G FAR-RELL'S—and has signature on the wrapper, all others are counterfeits.

Sold by INGRAHAM & FULLER, wholesale and re-

DR. GARLAND,

Has 20 years seclusive and Self Educated Physician has taken Rooms at the Western Hotel Bangor S Baker corner of Fourth and Union Streets where he will remain a short time for the relief of suffering man

A seclusion from the world twenty years, among the mountains of America & Switzer land Rhine, Ozens and Delle has fully prepared him to cure the worst of curable Chronic Maladies Believing the Vegetable Kingdom not sufficient for all cases the Doctor has recourse to the Animal Realms and Aquatic Fauna which with the former supply in their fullness the demands of suffering humanity

As water is to fire or as alkali to an acid so are potent remedies to the ills of life When the blood forces sluggishly through the veins and arteries the excretions blunted the feeble the face pallid and aches and pains tell that all is not well then to the rescue—the Physician knows what to do

The Doctor will say but little to his patients as he well understands the condition by the pulse and the countenance and he would therefore respectfully request all calls to remain no longer than is necessary at his rooms as he values time and will be obliged a share of the same in writing

Dr Garland makes no visits away from his rooms tho cases cannot personally call the Doctor can send a written or verbal description of their case by some trusty friend and thus procure the proper rem-

Important to the Sick!

R. RICHARD CLAY, M. D.,

THE most successful practitioner in Maine, for as to the United States, in the treatment of diseases of the Lungs. Asthma and all kinds of Pulmonary and Female Complaints, will be in attendance at

Hatch's House, Bangor, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Jan. 25, 26, 27 and 28

Pearson's Hotel, Oldtown, Saturday, Jan. 29.

Hotel Orono, Sunday, Jan 30

☞ Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Patients visited at their residence.

Consultations Free.

The superiority of Dr Clay's system of practice over all, and every other system, in the treatment of diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Nervous System, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Piles, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Spinal Diseases, Diseases of the Skin, Prolapsus Uteri, Fluor Albus, and all that formidable list of diversified suffering which comes under the general head of warrants him in soliciting for treatment cases that have been pronounced incurable by other physicians.

Female Weaknesses,

☞ Dr. Clay's medicines are purely vegetable. He uses no mercury, or other poisons, in any case whatever, as they injure the fine coats of the secreting membranes of the viscera, and unfit them for fulfilling the functions necessary to keep up a just balance of action.

The extensive acquaintance of Dr Clay with Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathology, enables him to determine the nature, extent and precise location of disease; describe the symptoms of the patient, tell them how they have been, how they are and how they will be, with a facility that will inspire the most incredulous with confidence, wonder, and admiration.

Consumption can be cured.

The consumptive reader is respectfully invited to call and hear Dr Clay's opinion respecting the curability of Pulmonary Consumption. His method of treating diseases of the lungs is peculiar to himself, and very similar to that adopted by Theophilus Thompson, M. D. F. R. S., Physician to the Hospital for Consumption and diseases of the Chest in England. Early attention is safety, delay is peril.

DOCT. CLAY

Will be at Dixmont Cor. Jan. 10 and 11; Canaan 12; Hartland 13; Palmyra 14; Detroit 15; Newport 16; Stetson 17; Exeter Cor 18; Dexter 19 and 20; Dover 21 and 22; East Corinth 23, Levant 24

Yacht EXCURSION to Australia.

The "A 71 Clipper Yacht "PEYTONA," 600 tons will succeed the Albus, as second Ship of this line, and sail from New York on the 1st of February.

THIS beautiful specimen of Marine architecture was built by the world renowned M'Kay, of Boston, for a racer, and like her namesake, the famous racehorse she has never been beaten. Mr M'Kay was the builder of the Flying Fish, Flying Cloud, Staffordshire, Sovereign of the Seas, and other Clippers in Mr John Ogden's Line to California, and the Peytona stands preeminent among the proudest monuments of his skill She will be fitted up in a style as elegant as unique, and fresh provisions will be furnished for at least one half of the voyage It is confidently expected that she will land her passengers at Melbourne on the Sixtieth day from New York, including stoppages.

No such opportunity as this has yet been offered to gentlemen desirous of visiting that enchanting region; and, as none but passengers freight will be taken, those disposed making a little venture to cover expenses, may do so.

It is not fair to compare this ship with the ordinary class of vessels hitherto fitted out and now advertised for Australia, as the Peytona is above competition from any quarter

She will take an experienced Surgeon, and all the attention of a first class hotel will be provided in the most liberal manner.

A drawing of the ship, and plan of births, will be exhibited, and rates of passage and other particulars made known, by applying to the Australian Packet Line
